

Evocare s.r.l. privacy statement

Evocare s.r.l., Taxpayer ID and Milan Business Register registration number 09638290966 REA number no. 2103522, having registered office in Corso Magenta 56, Milan. ("Evocare" or the "Company") undertakes to respect Your Privacy. Your personal data is in fact treated in accordance with the principles of lawfulness, fairness and transparency, purpose limitation, data minimisation, accuracy, storage limitation, integrity and confidentiality and accountability, as well as in compliance with all the other conditions set by the EU Regulation no. 2016/679, adopted by the European Parliament and the Council on 27 April 2016.

This document (hereinafter "Privacy Statement") has the main purpose of describing Evocare's policy regarding the management of personal information (hereinafter "Personal Data"), collected from the MyTravelCare App (hereinafter "Application").

1. Registration

As far as this is reasonably possible and compatible with the products and services offered by Evocare, the User may access them anonymously. It will not be necessary to register or create an account within the Evocare server login.

The User may create a profile that will be saved locally only on their device.

However, some of the services offered may store some of the User's personal information (illnesses, age, medicines and treatments, etc.) and, in accordance with this Privacy Policy, Evocare collects such sensitive data only with your express consent.

If anonymity is not compatible with the actual possibility for the App to provide supplying all the services and therefore it is necessary to request different and more in-depth and sensitive personal information, Evocare shall in any case request your express consent before obtaining such information.

2. Personal Data collected by the Application

The Data Controller collects the following types of Personal Data:

A) Data and contents acquired automatically when the Application is used:

- Technical Data: The computer systems and software procedures used to operate the Application may require acquisition, during normal operation, of some Personal Data, whose transmission is implicit in and required by the use of Internet communication protocols. Information are not collected for the purpose of associating it to any identified User. However, due to their nature, these information might, if further processed and correlated with other data held by third parties, be used to identify users. This category of data includes the IP addresses and/or domain names of the site users/visitor's computers, URI (Uniform Resource Identifiers) of requested resources, the time of request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file sent as a reply and so on.

B) Personal Data collected via cookies or similar technologies:

We do not use cookies to transmit personal information, nor do we use any persistent cookies of any kind, or systems that can backtrack Users. In other words the App does not acquire Personal Data through these technologies.

The use of session cookies (which are not permanently stored on the User's device and disappear when the browser is closed) is strictly limited to transmitting session identifiers to allow safe and efficient navigation of the App.

The session cookies used on this App do not use other technologies that could compromise the privacy of Users' browsing and do not allow acquisition of Personal Data that can identify the User.

When you download and install our Application on your mobile device, we assign a random Application installation code to it. This code cannot be used to identify you personally as a User and we cannot identify you personally unless you choose to become one of the registered users of the App.
